New Nordic Hunting and Wildlife Management Lobbyist

The Nordic Hunters' Alliance has as per 1st of October 2015 employed Mrs. Wieke Huizing Edinger as the new spearhead for the organisation.

Wieke is 40 years old, Dutch citizen and educated as a lawyer from University of Amsterdam. Furthermore, she has just handed in her PhD thesis within Food Law for approval from the University of Copenhagen.

Throughout her career, Wieke has among others worked as a lawyer in Holland, as project coordinator in Mozambique, as a Head of Section at the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration and as an in-house lawyer at the Danish Agriculture and Food Council, both in Copenhagen.

Wieke is not yet a hunter, but has a solid interest for nature. She is a mother of three children, living in Brussels and married to a Danish diplomat.

Wieke will be located at the office of FACE (The European Federation of Associations for Hunting & Conservation) in Brussels from where, she will advocate the views of the Nordic hunters and inform back to the Nordic hunting organisations the relevant day-to-day issues.

The Nordic Hunters' Alliance was established in 1947 and currently represents approximately 600,000 hunters and shooters in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Denmark and Iceland. The objectives are to maintain and develop Nordic hunting traditions, to contribute to game research and studies which form the foundation of wise use of game resources, and to comply with the requirements for information demanded by the authorities and the public.
